LANCASTER, KENTUCKY

2017-2018

S E A S O N

Dear Friends:

We believe that experiences in life are what stay with us. That's why we tailor our programming for all ages. Most young ladies won't have the opportunity to travel to Chicago or New York for an American Girl Tea. So we host an American Girl Tea at our theatre. Our Teas are very much like the settings in New York and other cities, where young ladies attend with their guests and their favorite American Girl doll. The dolls even have their own seats and tea cups. We've already hosted almost 2,300 and we're looking forward to another 600 this year. They'll remember it for a lifetime.

Debbie Hoskins
Executive Director

This will be a year of interesting, entertaining and exciting performances. We'll laugh with comedian Henry Cho in January and the Country Cool Comedy Tour in April. If you love art or music – you'll love Artrageous. It's an evening of artists, singers, dancers on stage – well, it's a full evening. Todd Gershwin, George Gershwin's nephew, will be with us for the production of Irving Berlin's I Love a Piano. They also plan to do a little Cole Porter and Gershwin during the evening. We just lost the great singer, Glen Campbell, but we are fortunate to have Jimmy Webb, who wrote most of Glen's hits, with us. Jimmy Webb is known as America's songwriter. He's covered them all...the Beatles, Linda Ronstadt, the Beach Boys, the list goes on. Get ready; we have Skatetacular coming in January. Yes, ice-skating on stage. One that will have us dancing in the aisles are the Modern Gentlemen...better known as the voices of Frankie Valli's Four Seasons. It's the great sounds of the 50s and 60s. Celtic Angels Christmas, Rhythm of the Dance and In the Mood bring it home to the Lancaster Grand. They've been with us before and are all back by popular request. Of course, during the holidays you'll want to attend A Christmas Carol. If all that's not enough we have the Wild World of Animals. See, there is something for everyone!

Teachers: don't forget about our daytime school performances; Dr. Seuss's Cat in the Hat, Artrageous, Rhythm of the Dance, Celtic Angels Christmas, A Christmas Carol and Wild World of Animals are available at a student price.

You can help. We operate solely on ticket sales, donations, purchase of seats and advertising sales. We hope that you will also consider becoming an advertiser, a sponsor of a performance, or just make a tax-deductible donation.

We thank you so much for your support and loyalty to the Lancaster Grand Theatre.

Sincerely,

Debra F. Hoskins

HISTORY OF THE LANCASTER GRAND THEATRE

On February 12, 1925, two of Lancaster's most prominent businessmen, J. R. and S. G. Haselden, opened the doors of "The Grand." The enthralled opening night guests raved "Spectacular... a Kentucky Showplace." Six beautiful chandeliers, crafted using actual parts from Model T Fords and illuminated by 277 lights, adorned the main auditorium. There were four elaborately furnished boxes that comfortably accommodated thirty-six guests perched in luxury above the 750-seat auditorium. The Haseldens, theatrical connoisseurs with a penchant for New York's Broadway, had invested the then extravagant sum of $40,000 to build and equip The Grand. The sparkling new theatre fulfilled their vision of creating a gem in Central Kentucky. Lancaster embraced The Grand, and it became a regional theatre that featured the latest movies, including serials, comedies, and westerns. The bill of fare also offered stage shows and vaudeville acts. On Saturday nights, it was standing room only for latecomers.

Today the Lancaster Grand vision has been reborn by history and civic-minded benefactors. Through painstaking planning and efforts, the Grand has been preserved and restored as a living part of Kentucky history. Its previous architectural and visual grandeur has been integrated with technological advancements to make the Grand a state-of-the-art performing arts center. This fifth season is part of the beginning of a long parade of world-class entertainment that will come to the heart of Central Kentucky. The Grand truly comes to life again in the eyes and ears of a new generation.

IRVING BERLIN'S I LOVE A PIANO

Farmers
NATIONAL BANK

IRVING BERLIN'S I LOVE A PIANO

I Love a Piano tracks the life of a piano with one sour key through four generations of singers and dancers who have performed with and around it. The show is a nostalgic musical journey spanning seven decades of American history as seen through the eyes of Irving Berlin – a man whom Jerome Kern described by saying “Irving Berlin is American Music!”

This spectacular show captures the spirit of America from Ragtime of the early 20th century through the swinging sophistication of the 1920s and 30s. From the sentimental songs that inspired a nation during two World Wars to the innocent optimism of the 1950's. Classics, such as “White Christmas,” “God Bless America,” “Puttin’ On The Ritz,” and “There’s No Business Like Show Business” do more than define the music of a generation, they define the music of America.
