Althea Thauberger

11 December 2008 to 24 January 2009

Althea Thauberger: 2x3x8, 2006, edition of 5, digital c-print, 122 x 183 cm

Pamela Meredith has organized this grouping of photographs culled from the span of Althea Thauberger's practice. This selection of photographs highlights, among other things, Thauberger's specific and meaningful arrangement of the subjects in her group portraits. Treeplanters, protesters, and conscientious objectors are contained and configured in poses dictated by the photographic frame, their physical environment, and the conceptual message of the project.
