There's Just Something Special...

Have you ever felt that unexplainable feeling while at The Lyric? A warmth, hospitable welcome, something just simply inviting and comforting? I honestly don't know how to describe the emotion she creates in me. There's just something special about The Lyric.

For 99 years, The Lyric has served this community - a movie house, house of worship, performing arts venue, gathering place, educational center, drug store, a retail center with shops offering a variety of products and services, a window to world cultures and a place to escape everyday life. It is a home that has created and evoked every human emotion, and this historic structure has gently captured and held a little of every smile, laugh, joy, surprise, anticipation, tear, fear, courage and awe.

What memories or feelings do you get when at The Lyric? We'd love to hear and see your memories as we gear up for the Centennial Celebration. Please send us your pictures and stories to info@lyrictheatre.com. We want to capture and pass your experiences to future generations who will enjoy The Lyric for the next 100 years.

Each one of us is what makes The Lyric a special place.

See you at The Lyric,

Kia Fontaine

HISTORICAL LYRIC

A Brief History

Weaving together the history of The Lyric Theatre over the past 99 years is a story of community, commitment and connection. A community who joined together to support and save this historic treasure is our story. The thriving Lyric Theatre we now know is a testament to you, our Community.

Spring of 1913
Construction for The "first" Lyric began on Osceola Avenue near Belle Flora and opened for its first performance a year later.

1917
The "first" Lyric was abandoned and moved to a little wooden structure on Osceola Avenue.

June 1925
Judge JC Hancock began construction of the new Lyric Theatre.

1930
Newly equipped with a RCA Photophone, Danger Lights was screened as the first "talkie."

1926
The Lyric opened with the feature picture Skinner's Dress Suit. Cost of construction was $100,000 and was the largest building in Martin County.

1936
The Hancocks fell on hard times during the Great Depression and sold The Lyric to the bank.

1936-1978
The Lyric was rented out to community groups and was used to present traveling vaudeville shows, news weeklies, movies and eventually, a Performing Arts Auditorium.

1978
The Lyric was purchased by the New Life in Christ Church and used for weekly worship services.

1988
Friends of the Lyric purchased the historic theatre.

1987
The Lyric was put up for sale. Seen as an anchor and much needed entertainment center, Roy Laycock entered into a contract to purchase the building. Believing the community should own The Lyric, Roy gathered a group of people with fundraising and operational backgrounds to ignite and support his vision.

1989
Friends of the Lyric became a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization.

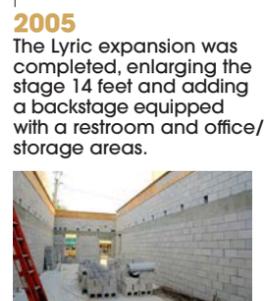

1991-1995
With grant funding from the State of Florida, National Endowment for the Arts and local community funding and support, The Lyric underwent needed stabilization and repair: new roof and air-conditioning systems, ADA Compliance alterations, Box Office construction, marquee improvements and remodeling of the lobby, restrooms and dressing room.

1993
The Lyric Theatre was listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

1999
Vacant lot to the north of The Lyric was purchased for a future expansion.

2001
The balcony of the theater was remodeled for the installation of new balcony seating, an elevator was installed and refurbishment of the lobby and restrooms.

2005
The Lyric expansion was completed, enlarging the stage 14 feet and adding a backstage equipped with a restroom and office/storage areas.

2014
A Capital Campaign resulted in substantial renovations to the lobby and box office, new exterior and interior entrances, new orchestra seating, new sound system and architectural elements added to the walls and columns.

2015-16
The Lyric's proscenium was ornamented in an Art Nouveau style. The elegant design, artistry and craftsmanship of the trompe l'oeil art technique were added throughout The Lyric including the balcony parapet, doorway transoms and interior theatre walls.

2021
With amazing community support for the Next Act Capital Campaign, The Lyric underwent critical structural and building renovations. Substantial structural column and beam replacement/repairs, new roof, new air conditioning units with state-of-the-art air purification systems and restoration of the marquees.

March 2020
The Lyric was shuttered by the COVID-19 Pandemic.

October 1, 2021 The Lyric reopened.
